Elle's passion for pet care and innovative business practices helped her double subscription revenue as an all-star dog trainer!

Learn her secrets

PocketSuite has been a game-changer for Akamai Dog Training in Hawaii! It has saved me so much time by automating scheduling and payments, and the transition from individual sessions to packages and now memberships has created a more consistent training experience for my clients and their dogs—no more lost progress due to long gaps between sessions.

The ability to store contracts and waivers in the app keeps everything organized, and the text reminders help keep everyone on track. Plus, tracking revenue is easier than ever, giving me a clear picture of my business growth. I highly recommend PocketSuite to any dog trainer looking to streamline their business!
