

Meet the business of the month!

Andreene believes that a cleaning business grows by working smarter, not just harder. When her profit stalled, she scaled back her service list on purpose so she could earn more while doing less.

Learn her secrets

When asked about a time her growth stalled and what she changed, Andreene said: “Profit was declining, so I scaled back the services to work less and make more.”

- Andreene Beharie, A Dream Cleaning Svc, Inc, Cleaning Professional

Trending News

- Thinking about expanding your services? Our latest guide breaks down how a real business owners plan rest time and capacity before expanding their business — no extra software required to get value from the read. Read the guide
- Your dashboards just got big upgrade, custom date ranges, filters that follow you between dashboards, and every number above the fold. See it in the app now!
- Your booking, checkout, and payment pages just got a fresh new look built to convert more of the clients who land there, and a PocketSuite expert will show you exactly which campaigns are actually working, so you can put more behind what’s paying off. Get the Booking Page Optimization Pack